

Bergenfield School of Irish Dancing

- Non-competitive
- Dancers can begin at age 5 and many stay into college.
- If you have no dance experience and would like to start, we can catch you up to the age group you belong
- Classes are on Thursday afternoons in Conlon Hall of St. John's
- First group meets from 4:00-4:30 (this is for young beginners), remaining classes are one hour
- Focus is on traditional dance steps and set dances
- Only pay for the lessons you attend.
- There is a one time insurance fee at the beginning of the year
- There are some performances around St. Patrick's day as well as marching in the Bergen County St. Patrick's Day parade in Bergenfield
- There is an end of the year recital in Conlon Hall, typically held the Thursday before Memorial Day, beginning at 4:00, and all family and friends are welcome to attend.
